Latvia

During free Latvia was aviator at the Aeronautical Regiment (Aviācijas pulks) of the Home Guards. During WW II he served with the Air Force unit of the Latvian Legion; was captured by the Soviets at Königsberg, East Prussia. His wife and two children are in the USA, Columbus, Ohio, where she has remarried with a Latvian, who is member of the fraternity "Letgallia". (Emils KUGA himself is member of the fraternity "Latvian") (from a letter of A. SISTINSONS; see File 907, Doc. 19). KUGA E., known among his friends by the nickname "KUGITIS", is mentioned several times in the letters of LINIS and RIPA. X see the letter of Oct. 1951 by LINIS; on 29 Apr. 1952 and 9 June 1953 by RIPA. X as ailing - it might mean: arrested; is glad about news from his relatives. According to these letters he seems to be in close contact with RIPA. (C).
